

Michael E. McDonald

March 27, 2008

Michael E. McDonald, 55, of New Haven, died March 27, 2008. He was born in Gouverneur on October 21, 1952 to the late Edward and Leona McDonald. He was an Eagle Scout and a member of the Order of the Arrow. Michael graduated from Clarkson University with a B.S. in Electrical Engineering. He was currently employed by Menter Ambulance as a Paramedic and was also an active member with Donald McFee Memorial Ambulance and the New Haven Volunteer Fire Department.

Michael was a Nationally Registered Paramedic, a New York State Instructor of EMT's and Paramedics and a CPR Instructor for the American Heart Association. He was also a life member of N.A.V.A.C. Ambulance, a lifetime volunteer firefighter and a member of Ticonderoga Volunteer Fire Department, Edwards Volunteer Fire Department and Granby Center Volunteer Fire Department. Michael enjoyed spending time hiking and climbing fire towers in the Adirondacks with his children.

In addition to his parents, Michael was predeceased by a sister, Jeanette Bennett.

Surviving are: daughter, Mattea E.S. McDonald of New Haven; son, Michael P. McDonald of New Haven; sister, Nanette (Bob) Macey of Owego and the mother of his children, Gail (Myers) McDonald.

Funeral services will be held 1 p.m. Tuesday at Fulton Alliance Church, 1044 State Route 48, Fulton.

Calling hours are 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Monday at Foster Funeral Home, 910 Fay Street, Fulton.

Contributions may be made in trust for Michael's children, Michael P. and Mattea E.S. McDonald, c/o Empower Federal Credit Union, 100 George Street, Oswego, 13126.