

Zofran Fact Sheet

Brand name: Zofran ODT, Zofran
Generic name: Ondansetron hydrochloride

Classification: Antiemetic

Indications: For the prevention and treatment of nausea and vomiting caused by radiation therapy or chemotherapy for cancer, and, in some cases, to prevent these problems following surgery.

Contraindications: Known hypersensitivity to medication or similar medications such as Anzemet or Kytril. Decreased liver function, intestinal obstruction, and cardiac arrhythmias.

Side Effects: Constipation, diarrhea, dizziness, fatigue, headache, hypotension

Dose: Ondansetron (Zofran) 0.1 mg/kg up to 4 mg IV.
Repeat once after 2 minutes as needed.
Additional dose per medical control.

CNYEMS Minimum Required Equipment: 2ml single dose vial (2mg/ml)

- ALS Ambulances: 2 vials ambulance and 1 vial portable kit
- ALS FR: 3 vials portable kit